The Senior Class

As we drove up before Senior Dorm in the fall of '57, graduation seemed a distant dream of the future; but old Papa Time has been shifting that hourglass with amazing rapidity, for the time has finally come when we can feel those sheepskins almost within our grasps.

We started out on our senior year minus sixteen of our classmates—student teaching in Roanoke, a brand new project with very satisfying results. After about eight weeks of school, our strays came rolling in from the Star City, just in time to add their talents to senior Circus, held this year in the Carribean Isles and wonderfully directed by Gayhart and LaFontaine. To make it typically Circus, we declared we didn't have time for practice, went anyway, and loved every minute of it. The big night arrived; and, "our last Circus" foremost in our thoughts, we gave it our best and were rewarded with second place—perfectly confident that that was the hardest decision any judges ever had to make.

With December came "Snow Dreams," ably directed by Shirley Mae Alcock and the very loveliest dance ever. Never had a dance been so well named, for as winter progressed our "Snow Dreams" were fulfilled. The "sunny South" spent the winter cloaked in white, and we slipped on sidewalks, got dunked in drifts and socked with snowballs. And the happiest people of all were the student teachers, who relaxed in the "rec" and greeted the rest of us with big grins and "no school today!"

Spring always comes, even if she is a bit slow at times, and with it a senior's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of graduation. College is but the beginning of knowledge. Our school gave of herself to us, and her greatest gift was to teach us to love learning. We had but to accept. For four years we looked forward to graduation, and now we have reached its gate. We owe so much to our faculty, to our administration, to our fellow students, and to our own special, wonderful Miss Weddle.

We are ready to leave, but when we allow our minds to ramble over the sings, the parties, the picnics, the mischief, Tootie's songs, the "philosophizing," the moments of inspiration, the million and one private memories that are the precious possessions of each individual—we know that we will keep these things for the proud vision of the future.

—Carolyn Waugaman.

Acknowledgments

We would like to express our gratitude to the following people who made the publication of the 1958 VIRGINIAN possible:

Mr. T. A. McCorkle, general advisor of the VIRGINIAN, many thanks for his able assistance in all phases of work on this publication. (We know, Mr. Mac, we speak for the many editors preceding us when we say without your help it could never have been done—truly a wonderful job!)

Miss Virginia Bedford for her valuable service as our art advisor. We also wish her much success in undertaking the job as general advisor of the future VIRGINIAN staffs.

Mr. Foster B. Gresham for his proofreading and excellent suggestions as our literary advisor.

The staff for the wonderful job they did and for their willingness to proof-read, index, paste, type, and the many other innumerable tasks they were asked to perform.

The student body, faculty, and administration for their interest and support.

André Studio for the photography in our annual. The Camera Artist and Hampton C. Owen for the special photography.

Roanoke Engraving Company for its helpful advice pertaining to the layout, art work, and engravings.

C. W. Warthen Company for printing our yearbook.

To Barbara Bishop, editor of the 1959 VIRGINIAN, and Dottie Boswell, business manager, we wish a successful year in planning and publishing the annual.

ELIZABETH ANN BRIERLEY, Editor-in-Chief

SHIRLEY MAE HAUPTMAN, Business Manager
